

FemLightenment

SERIES | 2023

The FemLightenment Series is designed to bring those who identify as women together to share their experiences in educational leadership.

Each one-hour virtual session will take place on Saturday mornings from 10:00 – 11:00 am and are open to all members upon registration at no cost.

As part of the series, facilitators will be invited to share resources, strategies and practical ideas that participants can use to support their practice.

KAREN BROWN

And Still We Rise!

Join us for the very first session of this year's Femlightenment series. A force to be reckoned with, Karen will share her insights about the importance of having women represent women at various tables where important decisions are made.

APRIL KRAHN

Standing Tall

We commit to supporting our communities, our next generation, to serve as positive role models. Our mantra is "walk softly in moccasins with intention" yet, we quickly learn it is about wearing steel-toed boots and uncomfortable Lycra leggings while traversing a never-ending hike marred with potholes and quicksand. Thankfully, I have never worried about appearances or challenges. Looking ahead, I am standing tall and ready for the next adventure.
